SUBJECT: RETENTION OF DAILY COLUMNS OF FOUR NEWSPAPER COLUMNISTS NEWSPAPER CLIPPINGS

Reference is made to the memorandum from Jones to DeLoach dated 2-15-61 which approved the policy of filing only one copy of the daily columns of [redacted] Westbrook Pegler [redacted]

The single copy of these clippings may be filed either in the substantive case file or in the file on the particular columnist. Since subject matter should control, and because of the fact as outlined in referenced memorandum that there has been no need for the control files, the single clipping will be filed according to whatever subject matter is mentioned by the particular columnist. In the future, if it is necessary to check all of the articles of any one of the particular columnists, it will be handled through back issues of newspapers in which they are published, which are presently maintained at the Library of Congress. As a result, there will no longer be available any control files on the above columnists, and accordingly it will not be necessary to quote file numbers for these files.

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this memorandum is to re-evaluate the current policy of clipping two copies of the daily columns of [redacted] Westbrook Pegler [redacted]

CURRENT PROCEDURE:

One clipping is sent direct to the Director's Office. The other copy is routed first to Mr. DeLoach's Office and then to [redacted] in the Records Section to be put in the main files of these four columnists. This procedure insures that a copy of these daily columns are readily available should the Director or any other Bureau official desire to see a past issue or raise a question about what was in a particular column. This procedure has been followed with regard to principal columnists for almost ten years. There is definitely a duplication of the columns in Bureau files since a column sent to the Director is routed around the Bureau and any columns reflecting the Director's notation or which contain information of value to the files are serialized and filed.

The Director and Mr. Tolson have repeatedly urged Bureau officials and supervisors to mark pertinent newspaper columns and clippings so that pertinent items will be indexed and retained in file. On a few occasions the column of one of the above four columnists could not be located. As a result, the procedure of sending a copy direct to file was instituted.

OBSERVATION:

The sending of a duplicate of each column directly to file has proved helpful on one or two occasions since this procedure was instituted. The time and expense on the part of personnel reviewing, indexing and filing these duplicate clippings and the space taken up by such files, does not seem to be justified on the basis of the benefits derived from this procedure. Should a particular column or series of columns be desired from past issues of the Washington and New York papers containing these columns, it would be a very inexpensive and rapid procedure to have a clerk go to the Library of Congress and review the back issues of these papers. Based on past experience, it would not be necessary to utilize such a procedure very frequently. The columns forwarded to the Director each day which contain information of value for permanent retention in Bureau files are appropriately indexed and are readily accessible.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

(1) That the present policy of sending a duplicate clipping of the columns of Pegler, [redacted] directly to file be discontinued immediately.

(2) Should the Director desire a copy of each column written by these columnists, regardless of its content, be filed, it is recommended that the column sent to the Director be marked for file at the time it is clipped and mounted. In other words, each clipping would have the main file number of the columnist indicated directly on the mounting paper before it reaches the Director's Office.

Dear Mr Hoover:

Referring to [redacted] remarks of recent date I think it would amuse you to know that a few years ago I was dining with [redacted] which then was red as a slit throat. FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Attorney General William P. Rogers today released the following information furnished to him by J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the FBI:

Mr. Hoover announced the arrest today by FBI Agents in New York City of Dr. Robert Soble, aged 60, of 128 Fort Washington Avenue, New York City, on charges of conspiracy to commit espionage as a member of a Soviet espionage ring.

Mr. Hoover stated the arrest was made on the basis of a Federal warrant issued November, 1960, at New York City following Soble's indictment by a Federal Grand Jury there.

The arrest of Soble by the FBI was another in a series of similar arrests during the past several years of Soviet agents who have

Dr. Robert Soble was born November 7, 1900, at Vilkaviskis, Lithuania. He entered the United States at San Francisco, California, on October 20, 1941, under the name Ruvelis Leiba Sobolevicius, from Shanghai, China. Soble became a naturalized American citizen in New York City on May 5, 1947. In September, 1927, he married Dina Volberg (Soble). They have one daughter who is married.

In 1944 and 1945 Dr. Soble, who obtained his medical degree at the University of Bern in Switzerland, was employed as a translator and consultant connected with the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration. In 1945 and 1946 he was an advisor with the UNRRA on specifications for medical instruments and equipment to be used in Europe. After 1946 he practiced as a private physician in New York City. In 1954, he became a resident physician at Rockland State Hospital, Orangeburg, New York. Soble maintains medical offices at 50 West 72nd Street, New York City.

Prior to coming to the United States and during the period 1922-1935, Soble studied at the University of Leipzig and the University of Berlin in Germany, as well as the University of Bern in Switzerland. He was attached to a hospital in Berlin from 1930-1931; the University Hospital at Bern from 1934-1935; University Hospital in Paris, 1936-1937; and City Hospital, Kaunas, Lithuania, from 1937-1940.

Dear Mr Hoover:

I think you are in political troub and I hope you win -- if you want to. Your higher auth have been partial to your adversaries but Mankind seems to be in a madness. If there is any unrestricted official material on that Soblen, the Russian spy who fled to Israel, I would be grateful for a copy. What the hell did that Buttenweiser woman mean by going his bond? How did he get here in the first place.

I think you have turned in a fine performance over the years and I resent this dirty effort to louse you up. The Kennedys are trying to make a Godman of a typical thuggish shanty politician. I knew him well and I never knew anything good about him. He betrayed Joe McCarthy to Eleanor and that was an act of terrible treachery. I believe McCarthy died broken hearted.

What legal authority had that stinking Warren to constitute a "commission" and hold such loose-jointed "hearings"? The Tucson Chamber of Commerce has just as good authority. What about a Texas State grand jury? This was a state crime with no Federal involvement. I wish you all the best.

DESCRIPTION OF FILE: 62-36434 SUB A
WESTBROOK PEGLER

The above listed file has been called to our attention by personnel of the Consolidation Unit. It consists of 42 sections beginning in 1935. All of these sections contain Pegler's columns clipped mostly from the Washington Post and the New York Journal American. No clippings have been placed in file since 1962. There has been limited correspondence with Mr. Pegler with the last outgoing dated 12/4/64. The majority of these clippings do not contain any indexing.

Destruction of this mail would result in saving space in the file room. This category of mail is authorized under the general records schedule and no further archival authority is requested.

Attention is called to the memorandum from F. W. Waikart to Mr. McGuire dated 2/23/61 (66-1897-710) to the effect that back issues of Pegler's columns are maintained at the Library of Congress. It is requested that the Crime Records Division review the above listed file to determine if any reason exists that would preclude destruction of these clippings. A notation advising of the decision reached may be placed on this memorandum and returned to the Consolidation Unit of the Records Branch, Room 7231.

RECOMMENDATION:

For referral to the Crime Records Section.
